Part II PipeWorks

Water conveyance by brethren, the network of connected faithful

We Are the Pipeline Psa 18:13-16; Eph 4:16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Dimension & Water: We are conduits of blessing, letting our light shine in midst of a crooked and perverse world. There is interconnectivity to the whole, as a body “fitly joined together”.

We are of the Pipe Works 144,000th Union!

It's about the water: R2123 “Every victory gained in the crucifying of the flesh gives the new nature more room to develop and to expand its powers; and as the spirit of the world and the will of the flesh recede, we find ourselves more and more in the company and fellowship of our Lord...”

Water Comfort 4-“C” sons Cheer, Compassion, Comfort and Care Isa. 61:1-3; R3434:“...But we have no sympathy at all with the thought so common with some good people; viz., that they should always be feeling miserable with themselves and making other people miserable, by continually nagging and faultfinding upbraiding and terrorizing. We believe that such well meant but mistaken efforts have done much harm” Matthew 5:14-16; Pro 11:25 ... he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

Phi 2:3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

It's a test.
